ISSUE. IF YOUR NEWSDEALER HAS ANY BRAINS, HE'LL HAVE IT ON SALE RIGHT AFTER MIDDLE OF AUGUST. YOU BUY IT---IF YOU HAVE ANY BRAINS!

HERE'S HERBIE!

Get news for you. Bad news. Lollipop manufacturers just announced big price rise. Realize what that means to me? Who can buy pops at those prices? Go hungry. Get weak! Can't bop anyone with this here lollipop if I can't afford this here lollipop. Encouragement for bad actors everywhere. Crime will increase—even you won't be safe. National emergency, whole world is bad way. But it doesn't have to be. Fix it so I can afford to buy lollipops at any price and presto! Situation improves. All you've got to do for me is make this magazine 100% sellout. Should be easy. Here's how: go to ten-friends, tell what great magazine "Herbie" is, 1,000 laughs per page guaranteed. Tell 'em to buy it and really start living. Ten friends, get it? Then tell 'em that after reading it and finding out how lucky they are, each of 'em in turn has got to tell ten other friends, and so on. If they won't do it, they're no real friends. Send me their names—so help me, I'll use my waaing strength to bop them. But he a real pal and convince 'em and there'll be no need for my strength to waae. Sell lots of copies, buy lots of lollipops and watch me go! Like in the stories in this very issue. Like in "Big Fat Mess At the Okay Corral". I'm at my best then—make sure to keep me that way, see? Like in "Professor Filidome's Screwy Machine". Notice how nothing can stop me in that one? Yessir, keep me in lollipops and that keeps me fat. Fatter I am, the braver. Fatter I am, the stronger. Counting on you folks to keep me brave and stroog. Here's what you've got to do. Write me a letter, see? Address it to "Herbie", Office Of The Editor, 331 Madison Avenue, New York 17, N.Y. In it, give me your promise to tell ten friends about me and get them to buy my magazine—and tell ten of their friends! And while you're at it, tell me what you think about my stories. Do all this and I'll see that your name is enrolled as a charter member of the "Herbie" Fan Club. Members will be personally guaranteed against bopping by me. Further, all you need do is send me a list of your favorite enemies, and they'll immediately be placed upon my Preferred Bopping List, to be attended to in order. And now, let's take a look at a few letters about me from other readers.

"Dear Editor:

Although I've never written to you before, I felt that the occasion of "Herbie" No. 1 compelled me to do so. In no uncertain terms may I say that his magazine was well deserved. Out of all characters ever created in comics, I guess Herbie is about the most unique one of all. I've been following his adventures in "Forbidden Worlds" previous to this, and I've also read the many letters asking for him in his own magazine. What really was a piece of showmanship was the way you showed Herbie's source of power—his different lollipops. Although we don't know where they came from or how they were made, we still see enough to keep us satisfied. While his adventures are hilarious, I would like to say that your short story, "Rocket No. 1352 Does Not Answer" had no place in "Herbie" No. 1. Please save such stories for your companion magazines. However, your written story was very good. It wouldn't have been had it been on any other subject than Herbie. Please have such written stories on Herbie in the future. You must know that you made a wise choice in giving the Fat Fury his own book. If future stories even resemble the ones in this issue, then he's set for life. I can only hope he gets a letter column, in which case the short story will probably be excluded. I'd rather see a letter column than a short story any time, since the frank opinions of your readers are always interesting. I can't see how you can receive any other but favorable replies to Herbie. Good luck in the future.

—Paul A. Feola,
1050 Wavetree Ave.,
San Antonio 1, Texas."

Paul A. Feola, hub? Look, I don't like this jazz about writing to the Editor. My magazine, you write to me. And what does "unique" mean? It better be something good if you want to keep your health. But maybe you mean well, so I'll go easy on you. You ain't just whistlin' about "Rocket No. 1352"—why do you think I ran that no-good Editor out of here and took over? From now on, we'll play it for laughs all the way, and none of that dopey stuff in my magazine. About the letter column—you've got it, so don't let me hear you complaining, see?

"Dear Editor:-

I don't agree one hit with Randy Decaro's letter in No. 115 of 'Forbidden Worlds'. I think your comics are great. One of my favorites is 'Herbie', but could you tell all of us readers how Herbie got to be a Little Fat Nothing?

-David Gede, c/o All America Cables,
Christiansted, St. Croix, Virgin Islands".

All right, David. I'll give you the real answer-confidentially. It wasn't easy getting to be a Little Fat Nothing—I had to work at it.

"Dear Mr. Hughes:-

I have just purchased issue No. 1 of 'Herbie'. I felt a little foolish buying a comic like Herbie, but when I had finished reading it, I knew that feeling was a great mistake. This comic is, in my opinion, the best that the American Comics Group ever published. This is my first letter to your company, but definitely not the last. How could such no issue miss, with such celebrities as President Johnson, Ladybird, Jimmy Durante, Fidel Castro, Sonny Liston and Khrushchev? And the artwork of this issue was sensational. Please praise Ogden Whitney for me on the great artwork. I actually cracked up when Herbie turned Merlin into Jimmy Durante, and when the Little Fat Nothing did that crazy Russian dance. If the Academy of Comic Books Arts and Sciences ever gives out an award for funny comics, Herbie's got it made. If not, they should give Herbie a special Golden Alley. Oh, yes—I'm president of the Ace Comics Club. We have over 40 members and we publish a newsletter. I am planning to write an article on your greatest sensation, the one and only Herbie. We are also forming a Herbie Fan Club and adding it to our club as a chapter. Are we the first Herbie Fan Club? As I am writing this letter, we have over 12 copies of issue No. 1 of Herbie on my bed. The issue is probably a sure sellout.

—Evan Landesman,

87-21 160 St., Jamaica 32, N.Y."

Keep this character Hughes out of this. The name's Herbie Popnecker and I run this show from A to Zowie. What's this about feeling foolish about buying a comic like "Herbie"? The only ones that should feel foolish are those who don't buy it, the dopes. About the celebrities in my magazine—just between us, it's an honor for them to get in, but I'm the democratic type. But I do like decorations to go with my lollipops. So far I've got the Congressional Medal Of Honor, the Croix de Guerre, the Best Of Show at the American Kennel Club and lots of others. You're not the first to form a Herbie Fan Club—that honor goes to the Herbie Popnecker Fan Club of Rutgers University.

"Dear Editor:-

Blast it! I saw the 'Herbie' magazine announcement to issue No. 119 of 'Forbidden Worlds' and I rushed right down to the newsstand. It looked like a tornado had hit it—comics strewn all over. After an intensive search, I discovered a disturbing fact—no 'Herbie', 'Adventures Into The Unknown', 'Unknown Worlds'—but oo 'Herbie'. I realize how valuable first issues of comics become, and I'm mad beyond words. If I ever hear the name 'Herbie' again, I'll take him oo siogbaodad!

—Denny Ward,

3072 Maizano Drive, Walnut Creek, Cal. You're gonna have to take me on single-handed, guy, because you'll bear the name "Herbie" a few million times a day if I have anything to say about it. You in shape? Wind good? Better send your mother a picture so she can remember you the way you used to be. On second thought, be fair, Popnecker. Give the guy a chance. Let him come into the ring with Cassius Clay, a zoo gorilla, The Monster From 40,000 Fathoms and two dozen assorted comics magazine heroes. Thatway, you may last half a round, Denny—but I doubt it!

"Dear Herbie:-

I've just finished reading 'Herbie And The Dragon's Tears' and 'Herbie Beards Castro' and I think you've got a wonderful magazine! Everytime I read it, I roll on the floor with laughter. But why, when you hop monsters with your lollipop, do they fly up in the air? Is it because you're so strong, or is your lollipop super?

—Laren Estleman,

5695 Walsh Road, Whitmore Lake, Mich." Does Macy's tell Gimbel's? Trade secrets, Laren. All I can say is, when I hop monsters, they stay bopped. Got any you want bopped, I'm your man.

UNDER RAY.

HERBIE GAVE HIS FATHER A SAFE HEADSTART. THEN FOLLOWED,
BACK IN HIS OWN DIMENSION, HE APPROACHED HIS HOUSE--AND SAW TROUBLE AFOOT!

OH-OH. SOMETHING
GOOFED UP. DIDN'T GET HIS FULL GROWTH BACK AND HE'S SCARED TO GO IN...

NEXT DOOR WAS PROFESSOR FLIPPOME'S LABORATORY...

HE PROVED THAT YOUR MACHINE
WORKS... NOW
YOU'VE GOT TO DO SOMETHING FOR HIM!

SIMPLE, HERBIE.
I'LL TRAIN THE BETA-RAY ON HIM FROM HERE.
THAT SHOULD DO IT!

IT DID IT, ALL RIGHT--AND THEN SOME...

--AND THE MACHINE PUT ME INTO ANOTHER WORLD WHERE EVERYTHING WAS TINY AND A BIG SPIDER
TRIED TO EAT ME! THEN I MET HERBIE, BUT HE WASN'T HERBIE AND HE BEAT UP THE KING-
SIZE ANT AND FOUGHT A PUEL WITH THE SWORD-FISH...

I KNEW YOU'D GOTTEN UP AND TRIED TO GO BACK TO WORK TOO SOON!
YOUR FEVER'S
COME BACK...
YOU'RE GETTING INTO BED AT ONCE!

IT ISN'T JUST THE WAY
YOU LOOK, YOU WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT, BUT I MET SOME BODY WHO WAS THE IMAGE OF YOU---BUT HE WAS A REAL POWER-

COURAGE...
WHAT STRENGTH

DRINK THIS NICE
HOT COFFEE... AND RELAX!
